Accessing BSRIA Services – a 10 Step Guide

For Employees of BSRIA Members

Your organisation is a member of the Building Services Research and Information Association (BSRIA). Our mission is to make buildings better, and we support industry in designing and operating buildings that perform well economically, socially, and environmentally. This means that as an employee of a BSRIA Member you have access to an unrivalled level of information and services that can be tailored to your specific requirements.

Follow our 10 Step Guide to get the most from your membership.
1. Register Online.

Registering couldn’t be easier. Go to www.bsria.com/uk and click ‘Sign In/Register’ in the top right hand of the webpage. Follow the registration instructions, making sure you register with your work email address. A verification email will be sent to your inbox. You must click on the link to complete registration.

Once signed in, click on ‘My Account’ in the top right corner. Then click ‘Email Preferences’ and then tick the box. This will ensure you automatically receive latest news and information from us.

2. Explore Information Online

   a. Search our Bookshop. Our publications are authoritative, independent and cover a wide range of topics relating to building services engineering and construction.

   b. Search our Information Centre. Keep well informed of the latest industry research and legislation - and receive professional advice whenever you need it.

3. Contact Our Team

We are here to resolve your problems and it is important that you know that there are people who can help. We can provide advice and support by phone, email or in person. You can always contact our membership team directly or indeed our in-house technical and business experts who will help resolve your problems and answer those difficult and time-consuming questions. There is no restriction to the number of enquiries you can make.

In the first instance please feel free to contact me, Richard Nash (Richard.nash@bsria.co.uk / 07976 703 749)
4. Attend Events & Training

We offer a wide range of training courses, networks and events. As members you will receive discounts on these. Our training is delivered at BSRIA sites (Preston and Bracknell), but can also be delivered in-house. If you can’t physically come to one of our locations, you can still take advantage of our expertise by registering for one of our regular webinars, from wherever you are in the world. For a full list of our training and network events click here.
